

BRAZIL STUDIES PROGRAM

AT THE DAVID ROCKEFELLER CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

feb

08 Thursday
4- 5:30 pm
CGIS S-250

Japan in Brazil: Cultural Dialogue & the Shifting Horizons of the Brazilian Imagination

Lecture with Christine Greiner, Pontificia Universidade Católica de São Paulo. Hosted by Shigehisa Kuriyama, Department of East Asian Languages and Civilizations, Harvard University. Co-sponsored by the Edwin O. Reischauer Institute of Japanese

15 Thursday
12:15-1:45 pm
CGIS S-050

Brazil's Global Prospects: the View from the Central Bank

Conversa with Paulo Vieira da Cunha, Deputy Governor - International Affairs, Central Bank of Brazil and moderated by Aldo Musacchio, Harvard Business School.

23 Friday
4-5:30 pm
CGIS S-216

Bate-Papo!

Bate-papo is a round table discussion in Portuguese where members of the Harvard Community can practice their Portuguese language skills and discuss Luso-Brazilian cultures. Co-sponsored by the Portuguese section of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures and DRCLAS.

mar

08 Thursday
12:15-1:45 pm
CGIS S-050

Culture Wars: Then and Now

Conversa with Daryle Williams, University of Maryland and Nicolau Sevcenko, Department of Romance Languages and Literatures, Harvard University. Moderated by Doris Sommer, Department of Romance Languages and Literatures, Harvard University. A discussion on how modern Brazil's cultural canon took definitive form in the Vargas regime and the tensions surrounding official policies of cultural management.

16 Friday
4-5:30 pm
CGIS S-216

Bate-Papo!

22 Thursday

Conference: The Brazilian Response to AIDS

12:15-1:45 pm
CGIS S-050

Harvard's Impact on AIDS Prevention and Treatment in Brazil

Conversa with John David, Harvard School of Public Health, Emeritus, and Sofia Gruskin, Harvard School of Public Health. Moderated by Ana Lindsay, Harvard School of Public Health.

2:00-3:15 pm
CGIS S-020

Panel I: Student Opportunities and Research on AIDS in Latin America

3:30-4:45 pm
CGIS S-020

Panel II: South-South Cooperation: A Comparative Look

5:00 pm
CGIS S-010

Keynote Address: Assessing the Sustainability and Future of the Brazilian AIDS Program

Paulo Teixeira, Former Director of the National STD/AIDS Program, Ministry of Health of Brazil

apr

04 Wednesday
6-7:30 pm
CGIS S-250

Imagined Nations: The Curious History in the United States, Europe, and Brazil of the *Recueil des loix constitutives des colonies anglaises, confédérées sous la dénomination

Joint History/Brazil Studies Workshop with Kenneth Maxwell, Director, Brazil Studies Program, Harvard University; Bruno Carvalho, Harvard University; John Huffman, Harvard University; Gabriel Rocha '08.

5th Annual Brazil Week - The Arts in the Brazilian Diaspora - April 10-13th

10 Tuesday
6-8 pm
CGIS S-020

On the Sonic Politics of Brasilidade: Performing Brazilian Music in the United States

Opening and Welcome: Clémence Jouët-Pastré, Harvard University Keynote Address: Jason Stanyek, New York University. Special Presentation: Capoeira Regional - Harvard Chapter

11 Wednesday
6-8 pm
CGIS S-010
Tsai Auditorium

By Way of Samba and Capoeira: Brazilian Cultural and Political Coalitions in Chicago

Bernadete Beserra, Universidade Federal do Ceará. Moderated by Heloísa Galvão, Grupo da Mulher Brasileira, Boston Book launch: 'Brasileiros nos Estados Unidos: Hollywood e Outros Sonhos' Hucitec/UFC/Edunisc (São Paulo/Fortaleza/Sta Cruz do Sul).

12 Thursday
6-8 pm
CGIS S-010
Tsai Auditorium

"Nailed!": Film Screening and Discussion with the Filmmaker

Sheldon Schiffer, Georgia State University. Moderated by Carlos Eduardo Siqueira, University of Massachusetts Lowell.

13 Friday
12-2 pm
CGIS S-010
Tsai Auditorium

Cinema Brasileiro-Americano? Estética e Identidade em 'A Fronteira' e 'Nailed!' and Para americano ver?: Uma Breve História da Presença Brasileira no Cinema Norte-Americano

A discussion with Antonio Luciano de A. Tosta, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, followed by a discussion with Darién Davis, Middlebury College. Moderated by Clémence Jouët-Pastré, Department of Romance Languages and Literatures, Harvard University.

20 Friday
4-5:30 pm
CGIS S-216

Bate-Papo!

25 Wednesday
6-7:30 pm
CGIS S-250

Revisiting a Classic: Vassouras remembered

Joint History/Brazil Studies Workshop with Stanley Stein, Princeton University, Emeritus. Professor Stein will speak about the vicissitudes of field work in the Paraíba Valley of Brazil in the 1940s as a Harvard graduate student. A chapter from 'Vassouras: a Brazilian Coffee County 1850-1890' will be circulated.

26 Thursday
12:15-1:45 pm
CGIS S-050

New Voices! Race and Affirmative Action in Brazil: the Continuing Challenges of Exclusion

Conversa with Paulo da Silva, Teachers College, Columbia University; Adilson Moreira, Harvard Law School; and Graziella Silva, Harvard University. The first in a regular semesterly presentation by doctoral students working on cutting-edge issues. Moderated by Prudence Carter, Department of Sociology, Harvard University may

tbd 12:15-1:45 pm
CGIS S-050

The Good Germans: the Story of the Koch-Weser family in Paraná

Conversa with Caio Koch-Weser, Vice Chairman of Deutsche Bank Group, Chairman, European Union Economic and Financial Committee, and Dieter Koch-Weser, Harvard Medical School, Emeritus. Moderated by Kenneth Maxwell, Director, Brazil Studies Program, Harvard University. In the public mind Germans in Brazil are often associated with hidden Nazis, but there is another story of Germans in Brazil which is largely unknown and has strong Harvard connections.

02 Wednesday
6-7:30 pm
CGIS S-250

The Sertão Begins at the End of the Avenida Central: Rurality, Migration, and Inequality in Post-Abolition Brazil

Joint History/Brazil Studies Workshop with Brodwyn Fischer, Harvard University.

<http://drclas.fas.harvard.edu/brazil>

These events are made possible by the generous support of the Jorge Paulo Lemann Fund.

Unless otherwise specified, all events are held at the Center for Government and International Studies (CGIS), 1730 Cambridge St., Cambridge, MA 02138.

For more information, please contact Erin Goodman, at egoodman@fas.harvard.edu.