

MERILEE
GRINDLE

Merilee Grindle is the Edward S. Mason Professor of International Development, Emerita, at Harvard University and the former director of its David Rockefeller Center for Latin American Studies.

A celebration and conversation with the author

Come listen to Merilee Grindle discuss her new book on the remarkable Zelia Nuttall.

It's a gripping story of a pioneering anthropologist whose exploration of Aztec cosmology, rediscovery of ancient texts, and passion for collecting helped shape our understanding of pre-Columbian Mexico.

Enjoy refreshments and explore rare collections related to Zelia Nuttall's work.
