

Wintership Program in Mexico

2023 INFO SESSION

Winternship Program in Mexico

International pre-professional experience

Networking opportunity

Spanish language and cultural immersion

Program Dates

January 2023 Program:

Monday, January 2nd -

Saturday, January 21st

This includes arrival & departure days. ALL program dates are mandatory to attend for all students, no exceptions will be made.

Program Details

Work Schedule: Monday – Friday

DRCLAS Activities: The MXO will plan activities (at no extra charge) throughout the city and surrounding states

Free Time: Students are free to explore and enjoy Mexico after work hours

Housing: Students are matched with host families throughout the city

Confirmation Deposit: $100 paid by each student via term-bill

Funding: $1500 per student for transport, meals, etc.

Internship Opportunities:

- ❑ ALBA: Education innovation startup, help young learners, educators and parents explore Nature as a model for learning through play.
- ❑ Ambulante: Documentary Film, marketing, communications, press.
- ❑ Ashoka: Social entrepreneurs, Empathy and Young Changemaking.
- ❑ AtentaMente: Promotion of social-emotional well being, education.
- ❑ CAPSUS: Urban sustainability, environmental management and social terms.
- ❑ Centro Nacional para la Evaluación de la Educación: Evaluation, Education Policy.
- ❑ Centro de los Derechos del Migrante: Human Rights, Law, Research.
- ❑ C Minds: Women-led action tank that works in the intersection of new technologies, society, and the environment.

Internship Opportunities:

- ❑ Clubes de Ciencia México AC: Program of science education, development of the high school and undergrad students in STEM.
- ❑ Data Cívica: organization that uses data and technology as tools for the defense of Human Rights.
- ❑ Education for Sharing: Education, develop social emotional through the power of play.
- ❑ Hacedores: Maker Education into practice, fostering creativity and knowledge of Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Mathematics.
- ❑ Health Policy Initiative at the Tec de Monterrey: Policies for health through solid research and the generation of spaces for the plural debate of ideas.
- ❑ Hydra: Art and photography, promotion of international cultural funds, marketing.

Internship Opportunities:

- ❑ Liga: Contemporary Latin American architecture through exhibitions, publications, events, conferences, and workshops.
- ❑ Oficina de Resiliencia Urbana: GSD Urban Planning start-up, climate change and environmental resilience.
- ❑ Population Council Mexico (PC-Mx): Public health policy, reproductive rights with a gender perspective.
- ❑ Vía Educación: Education, y la transformación social, desde una perspectiva interdisciplinaria y sistémica.
- ❑ Grupo Promesa: Social enterprise focused on implementing and developing programs that transform the environmental culture of México. We achieve that goal through strategies applied in schools, companies, homes and organizations of the country.

Cultural Activities:

Past DRCLAS Activities Include:

Teotihuacán • Ciudad Universitaria • Tlatelolco • Xochimilco • Muralismo-
Arte Moderno • Museo de Antropología • Surrounding states

Who Can Apply?

Opportunities are open to graduates
& undergraduates*

Spanish language required

Demonstrated interest in Latin America &/or Mexico

Some organizations are degree-specific*

How to Apply:

All students must apply
using CARAT!

Applications are open until Monday,
October 10th at 11:59pm.

Interviews will be held in mid-October

Questions?

Rachel: (rachelmurray@fas.harvard.edu) / Cambridge Office

Lorena: (lorenarodas@fas.harvard.edu), Mexico City Office

